

Club Night Guidelines
Davis Dog Training Club
2011

The fee schedule for non-members who attend is as follows:

1. Prospective members with an application on file will pay $5.00 per practice session until their membership requirements are completed and they are voted into membership. Only one Club Night session may be counted as a membership activity to meet the membership requirements.
2. Non-members without an application on file & guests must contact leader or training committee chairperson prior to attending any session to determine suitability to join the group regarding dog's training level and temperament, making certain, as well, that they are aware of the need to sign a waiver of liability, bring shot records, and pay the appropriate fee. The fee is $10.00 per session.
